2) Past

Bereift of things easa cloisedten wall crushing us .Lonelyboat sailing at the harbor going out to sail at the harbour without a good wind but an elevated spirit, 17 young men all on the pier and I didn't want to be seen near them

Cold morningswillbe taken to long nights with this thing. Nothing so psychoactive as it - the radio. I don't understand how it works but I want to learn . I have to learn. That's how everything always worked -just like what they said . Just like my mom said.

I remember nights at your house turned to hoops and hoops on hils unlay school down there. I never wanted to go back . Never, not one bit. All games but even there are gone, just radio now.

A dream: Venice . Thoiusands of chgogrwe coats all run down the streets, the river, the rooftops, flying in Vs headed south : all talking about their purpose, who they are, their popularity . It left me with such unease

Places (Mirror) cold hand on a tear stained shoul,der . SHOULD"VE BOULDER UP THAT LANE to heaven! Stunned with her words I coulkdn't even believe my ears why she ould why would she say that with the knowledge of a broken heart

I packed myself up from that dread filled fevening and went home , Crystalline speaker dream waited for me all this time and I couldn't express how happy I was to seeeeeeeeeee it after so long

Empty light above dinner ta.le . Stale meal chewing . Jellied summer turned to leftovers in fall.

Sharpening another day stepped out in to the september wind and waited for the bus . The thogught of the radio still lingering in my mind una ble to get it out get it off at all .

Mary's hospital change and friends coldless and countless CAMe down with a sickness so awful . There was a dream of a broken lag ; she had liquids running into her and she was asleep quiet as ever. I wanted to wake her but the brown and its shades in her eye would n t lower

She has to come alive some how . It is a patch'tel trouble . . . as the marching band came while she was asleep . MISSING IT & MISSING OUT from an ope slumnber

Forthern through yellow and orange tints on the chair . Drifting off to sleep with the feeling of impending sorrysickness coursing through everything. Indian summer broke the frost and gave us all headaches and dizziness.

The foyer was never so small as to not hold a single chair and we had to put five or six of them in there.

Winter break was full and c if record cold . We stayed up with paper and nauture for days, decreasing in energy the further we went. I THREW UP a lOT of my person All over the couch several times . It couldn’t have been less than 700 times that I apologized after ward s.

Hold - captier. Five boxers (/ five boxes) .

4) Lyrics

Chapel’s last little roe srash

[Forward]

Ah

Pa’tchtel

[Nata]

Before we were newly married

Baptized in the church

So deep in that pool

…or buried in our parents

Right as we were wedded

I couldn’t think straight at all

My head was all messed up

Had to get out some way

[JR Get Money]

(Alright) Already, the show goes on

All night, ‘til the morning we dream so long

Anybody ever wonder, when they would see the sun up?

Just remember when you COME UP

Coat’s Lament

[Nata 1, 2, and 3]

We are the coats with the denim charm

We are the coats that make for warm arms

We are the coats that keep you safe from burns

We are the coats that they wear around the world

[Nata 4]

(Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaahhhhhh)

[Nata 1, 2, and 3]

We are the coats with the corduroy necks

We are the coats that are the very best

We are the coats that make for well done work

We are the coats that you'll wear around the world

Your New Tabler (Keegan)

[Nata]

This is a glass

This is unstable

Creep at the edge

…of your new table

25% Little Star

[Nata]

I’m with you

It’s so cool

It’s so cool

We’re at school

I’m breathing

That quite good laughter

Both eyes out so

…I’m with you

It’s so cool

It’s so cool

[Forward]

Smoke words down oh

Smoke . . . like a new pack of cigarettes

It turiel couldn't be, less out

Just to be this careless now

(I need it all to re-ever one to need this careless song

I had never one to talisman your off

You're laying in your bed

Quiet and calm

so strummed down

You're asleep

Couldn't come down if you want

I'm trying your name

But nothing comes out

I'm trying to figure out

You're laying in my bed

Quiet and calm

Pulse is running slow

Couldn't wake if you'd want

I'm trying your eyes

But they're not coming down

I'm trying to figure out

I'm trying to figure out

I love you, you're quiet, I love you

Schxyxas Ouyres

[General Nunan]

You just crossed one of those lines

PCM

[Forward]

The car seat left out

Dropped it on the floorboard

See you in the sign

Patient on the string

Nire at the moonlight

Everything is scared hour

Facing at your afternoon

I was closer you are

From letting you go

Nothing to do

I was closer then

Faces back home

Back to there

I spend your last one out

Your Voice is Being Let Slowly

[Forward]

I was in a well, trapped in the water

I’m in the background, all grey weather

The road I took to your house: it was long enough

Snow piled on my truck, it was freezing cold

I was all alone past September

I lost a war with myself in October

I felt the urge to leave, I felt the same again

I’ll fly, I’ll get away in December

Camera’s on, so baby hear me out

I’m on the floor already, so don’t beat me down

I get up, and I don’t feel okay

I’m used to change, but it’ll stay the same

I’m on airplane mode

Don’t fuck with me

I can’t take you home
